

Interphone

Price: starting at 30 EUR

Where to buy: In every electronic store; on the Internet.

Description: Through an interphone or intercom system it is possible to talk to the visitors without having to open the entrance door. High-priced systems also offer the possibility to get an impression of the visitors by means of cameras in front of the entrance door. The installation or retrofitting of such a system can be time-consuming and is not always possible. Consultation by a specialist company is advisable here.

Case description: Mrs. Smith lives alone in her house. Recently, there have been increasing burglaries in their immediate neighborhood. Therefore, Mrs. Smith decides to have an intercom system installed for her own protection.
